LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

To carry on the business of dealers in, manufacturers, lessors, lessees, repairers, storers, importers, exporters, warehousemen, operators, and proprietors of all kinds of aeroplanes, seaplanes, flying-boats, air-ships, and machines for aerial flight, whether heavier than air or otherwise; parachutes, automobiles, motor-trucks, tractors, trailers, motor-cycles, and vehicles of all kinds; boats, motor-boats, ships, and other vessels, whether operated by mechanical power or otherwise, and all kinds of motor and other vehicles and conveyances of every nature and description; and all motors, machinery, gear, component parts, accessories, fittings, implements, utensils, appliances, apparatus, gasoline, lubricants, solutions, and all things capable of being used therewith or in connection therewith, or in the manufacture, maintenance, and working thereof respectively; and also the businesses of electricians, carriers, aeronauts, wheelwrights, japanners, annealers, enamellers, electroplaters, painters, and varnish-manufacturers; cameras, plates, films, lens, and other commodities, materials, articles, and things of any nature whatsoever capable of being used therewith or in the manufacture, maintenance, operation, and working respectively of the same or any portion thereof, or in any way incidental or capable of being used or dealt with in connection with or for the purposes of any businesses herein mentioned, or likely to be required by customers of any such businesses:

(b.) To establish and maintain lines or regular services of aircraft of all kinds, and carry on the business of carriers of passengers and goods by air, sea, river, canal, railway, and otherwise; and to enter into contracts for the carriage of mails, passengers, goods, and merchandise by any means, and either by the Company's own aircraft and conveyances or by or over the aircraft, vessels, conveyances, and railways of others; and to enter into contracts with any person or company as to interchange of traffic, running-powers, or otherwise; and in connection with any of the objects aforesaid to carry on the business of railway contractors, shippers, ship-builders, omnibus proprietors, manufacturers of machinery and railway-cars, omnibus and coach builders; and to carry on the business of warehousemen and storers of goods, wares, and merchandise of every kind and description whatsoever, or any other trade or business whatsoever which can in the opinion of the Company be advantageously carried on by the Company in connection with or as ancillary to the general business of the Company:

(c.) To purchase or take in exchange or on lease any lands, docks, or buildings in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, or any leases, rights, or other interest therein, and to erect any buildings, warehouses, wharves, docks, or machinery on or to cultivate or otherwise utilize any lands for the time being belonging to the Company:

(d.) To establish aerodromes, depots, sheds, or stations for the storage or reception of aeroplanes, seaplanes, balloons, air-ships, and flying-machines, and to use and conduct experiments in connection with and to promote race-meetings, speed and trial tests for and aeronautical and other exhibitions of aeroplanes, seaplanes, balloons, air-ships, flying-machines, and motors, and to offer for competition and distribute prizes in connection therewith, or for any other purpose likely to tend to the advancement of the science and practice of aviation, aerostation, and aeronautics, and to finance inventors and others for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(e.) To establish, maintain, and conduct, or to assist in the establishment, maintenance, and conduct of, any school, club, association, or society formed for the purpose of advancing the study and practice of aviation, aerostation, and aeronautics:

(f.) To carry out experimental work in connection with the design, construction, and operation of aircraft of all descriptions:

(g.) To carry on business as exporters, importers, and shippers of and dealers in all kinds of furs and animal-skins; to treat and prepare for the market any or all of such furs and skins; to manufacture, export, import, ship, and deal in any or all articles of clothing or otherwise which are capable of being made either in whole or in part from furs or animal-skins:

(h.) To carry on the fur trade and manufacture of all articles in connection therewith, and generally all business operations, commercial, industrial, financial, directly or indirectly connected with such trade in Canada or elsewhere:

(i.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

(j.) To underwrite, subscribe for, and acquire by exchange, purchase, or otherwise, and to hold, either as principal or agent or absolutely as owner or by way of collateral security or otherwise, and to sell, guarantee the sale of, offer for public subscription, exchange, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of or deal in bonds, debentures, mortgages, or other evidence of indebtedness, stock, shares, and other securities of any Government, governmental agency, taxing body, commission, or municipal corporation, or of any banking, public utility, commercial, industrial, or other company or corporation whatsoever, individual, or association, whether in British Columbia or elsewhere, and while the owner thereof to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including all voting rights, if any, with respect thereto:

(k.) To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of payment of dividends upon shares, guarantee of bonds, debentures, or other securities or otherwise, any company, corporation, firm, person, business, or undertaking; provided that nothing herein nor in the last preceding clause contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(l.) To act as agent or attorney in the acquisition, management, sale, assignment, transfer, encumbrance, conveyance, or other disposition of any real or personal property, the investment and collection of moneys, rents, interests, dividends, hypothecs, bonds, notes, and other securities; and in the name of the Company to invest the funds of two or more principals, for whom the Company is acting as agent, in real estate or upon the security of real estate for the benefit of such principals, and to execute and deliver a declaration in favour of each principal showing his respective interest in such investment:

(m.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated to facilitate the realization of any securities held by the Company, to prevent or diminish any apprehended loss or liabilities, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with by way of resale or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, ground-rents, reversions, policies of assurances, life interests, choses in action, book debts, and other assets:

(n.) To lend money and negotiate loans; to draw, accept endorse, discount, buy, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities; to issue on commission, subscribe for, take, acquire, and hold, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any Government, authority, or company; to form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds; to give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligations or undertaking; to acquire, improve, manage, work, develop, exercise all rights in respects of, lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with property of all kinds, and in particular land, buildings, concessions, patents, business concerns and undertakings; to enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions; generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by capitalists, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, contractors for public and other works, merchants, and any other business whatsoever; provided nothing herein shall confer the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(o.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(p.) To register or license the Company in any other part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(q.) None of the preceding subclauses or objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred, nor the powers set forth in section 22 of the "Companies Act" shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted in reference to inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
